

Math Instructor for English Language Learners In-person Adjunct, Burlington, VT

Vermont Adult Learning Job Title: Math Instructor, English Language Program

Employment Classification: Adjunct, non-benefited

Reports To: Regional Director

Primary Work Site: Burlington Learning Center

Vermont Adult Learning: Vermont Adult Learning (VAL) is a private nonprofit and a member of Vermont's Adult Education and Literacy System. Working closely with other nonprofits, state agencies, and schools, we serve seven of Vermont's 14 counties. We provide instruction in basic academic skills, work readiness, and English language skills; high school completion and GED prep; and transition to college and career services. Our programs are free to Vermont residents, age 16 and older who want to obtain a high school diploma or the equivalent skills, or who want to learn English.

Purpose of the job: To provide a variety of math instruction to adult English Language learners from multiple countries, both recent and long-term residents, and more recent refugees. Students will have an intermediate level of English language skills. ELL Math instructors are committed to providing instruction from basic numeracy to algebra, geometry, and statistics. The instructor will use contextualized examples and differentiated instruction to engage students and help them gain the math skills they will need to reach both their immediate and long range goals. Instructors are expected to deliver engaging and effective lessons and project based instruction are encouraged. Instructors also play a critical role in creating a welcoming, supportive environment for new and current students.
